

It would be downright un-American to limit satellite radio's ability to broadcast local content. So NAB would willingly limit the choice I have for media outlets to protect their own interests? It sounds positively communist. Reject NAB's petition 04-160 and guarantee our right to choice, which is the most basic founding principle of this nation.